教學內容	Please refer to the English version.	Syllabus	This is an extremely interesting class for students wishing to exploit their potential in creativity & their capacity to work alone/in groups. Consequetnly, this is an elective course in the Department of Foreign Languages which is not only at an advanced level but is also very demanding. A vast amount of western literature and plays will be studied. Both theory (interpretation/analysis of the play...etc.) & practice (actual acting & stage performance) are to be delivered and rendered. The pre-requisite of the course: participants who are at least moderately competent in understanding & communicating in English in order to participate in the class. Please note that participants can only enjoy the course the most with 100% devotion as well as passion to plays and dramas.
