It reinforces and builds on the knowledge of grammar and vocabulary previously acquired by the students. According to the starting level and to the abilities of the students, different approaches are used to achieve the same goal, which is to improve the students" reading, writing, speaking, and listening skills in English. For reaching this goal much effort is put into encouraging the students to use English as often as possible. Students have to understand the importance of English and become more confident and less afraid of speaking English. There are different techniques to motivate the students, such as, inter alia, group work and role playing.
教材	The course is intended as an EFL course emphasizing fulency in a general context, i.e. English for general purposes. It provides the students with a non-threatening learning enviroment. The students increase their confidence in using English and improve their ability to apply the knowledge of the English language they have acquired in high school.The four skills of reading, writing, speaking and listening are taught in a integrated methodoligy. The instructor are expected to incorporate the teachingof spesific language skills in their everyday classroom activities and foster the students' ability to participte in cycles of language use; students discuss what they have read, write about what they have discuss in class and listen to what their peers have say about a reading or viewing assignment.
