Traveling is a kind of subtle, soul-searching behavior. It is also a deep exploration into your inner self. Traveling can be a relief, an adventure, learning and growth. With a nostalgic impulse, you can find your spiritual home in the universe. Moreover, you can observe, meditate and feel the novelty and the variety of life. Idling in a corner of the earth, you are unlikely to broaden your horizon. The purpose of this course is thus to improve the abilities of capturing the beauties of nature, understanding different customs, and putting them into words.
