教學內容	Since this class is designed for students who don't major in English, the focus will be on the colloquial practice. This class will contain the conversation about eating, dating, shopping and studying. Besides, the skills of reading listening will be trained in class. The bottom line is to give students the chance to talk in English. As for the requirements, this course needs students' overall performance and active attendance. They should be well-prepared and active in having a discussion in class.
